

CRICKET TOUR TO INDIA – April 2025

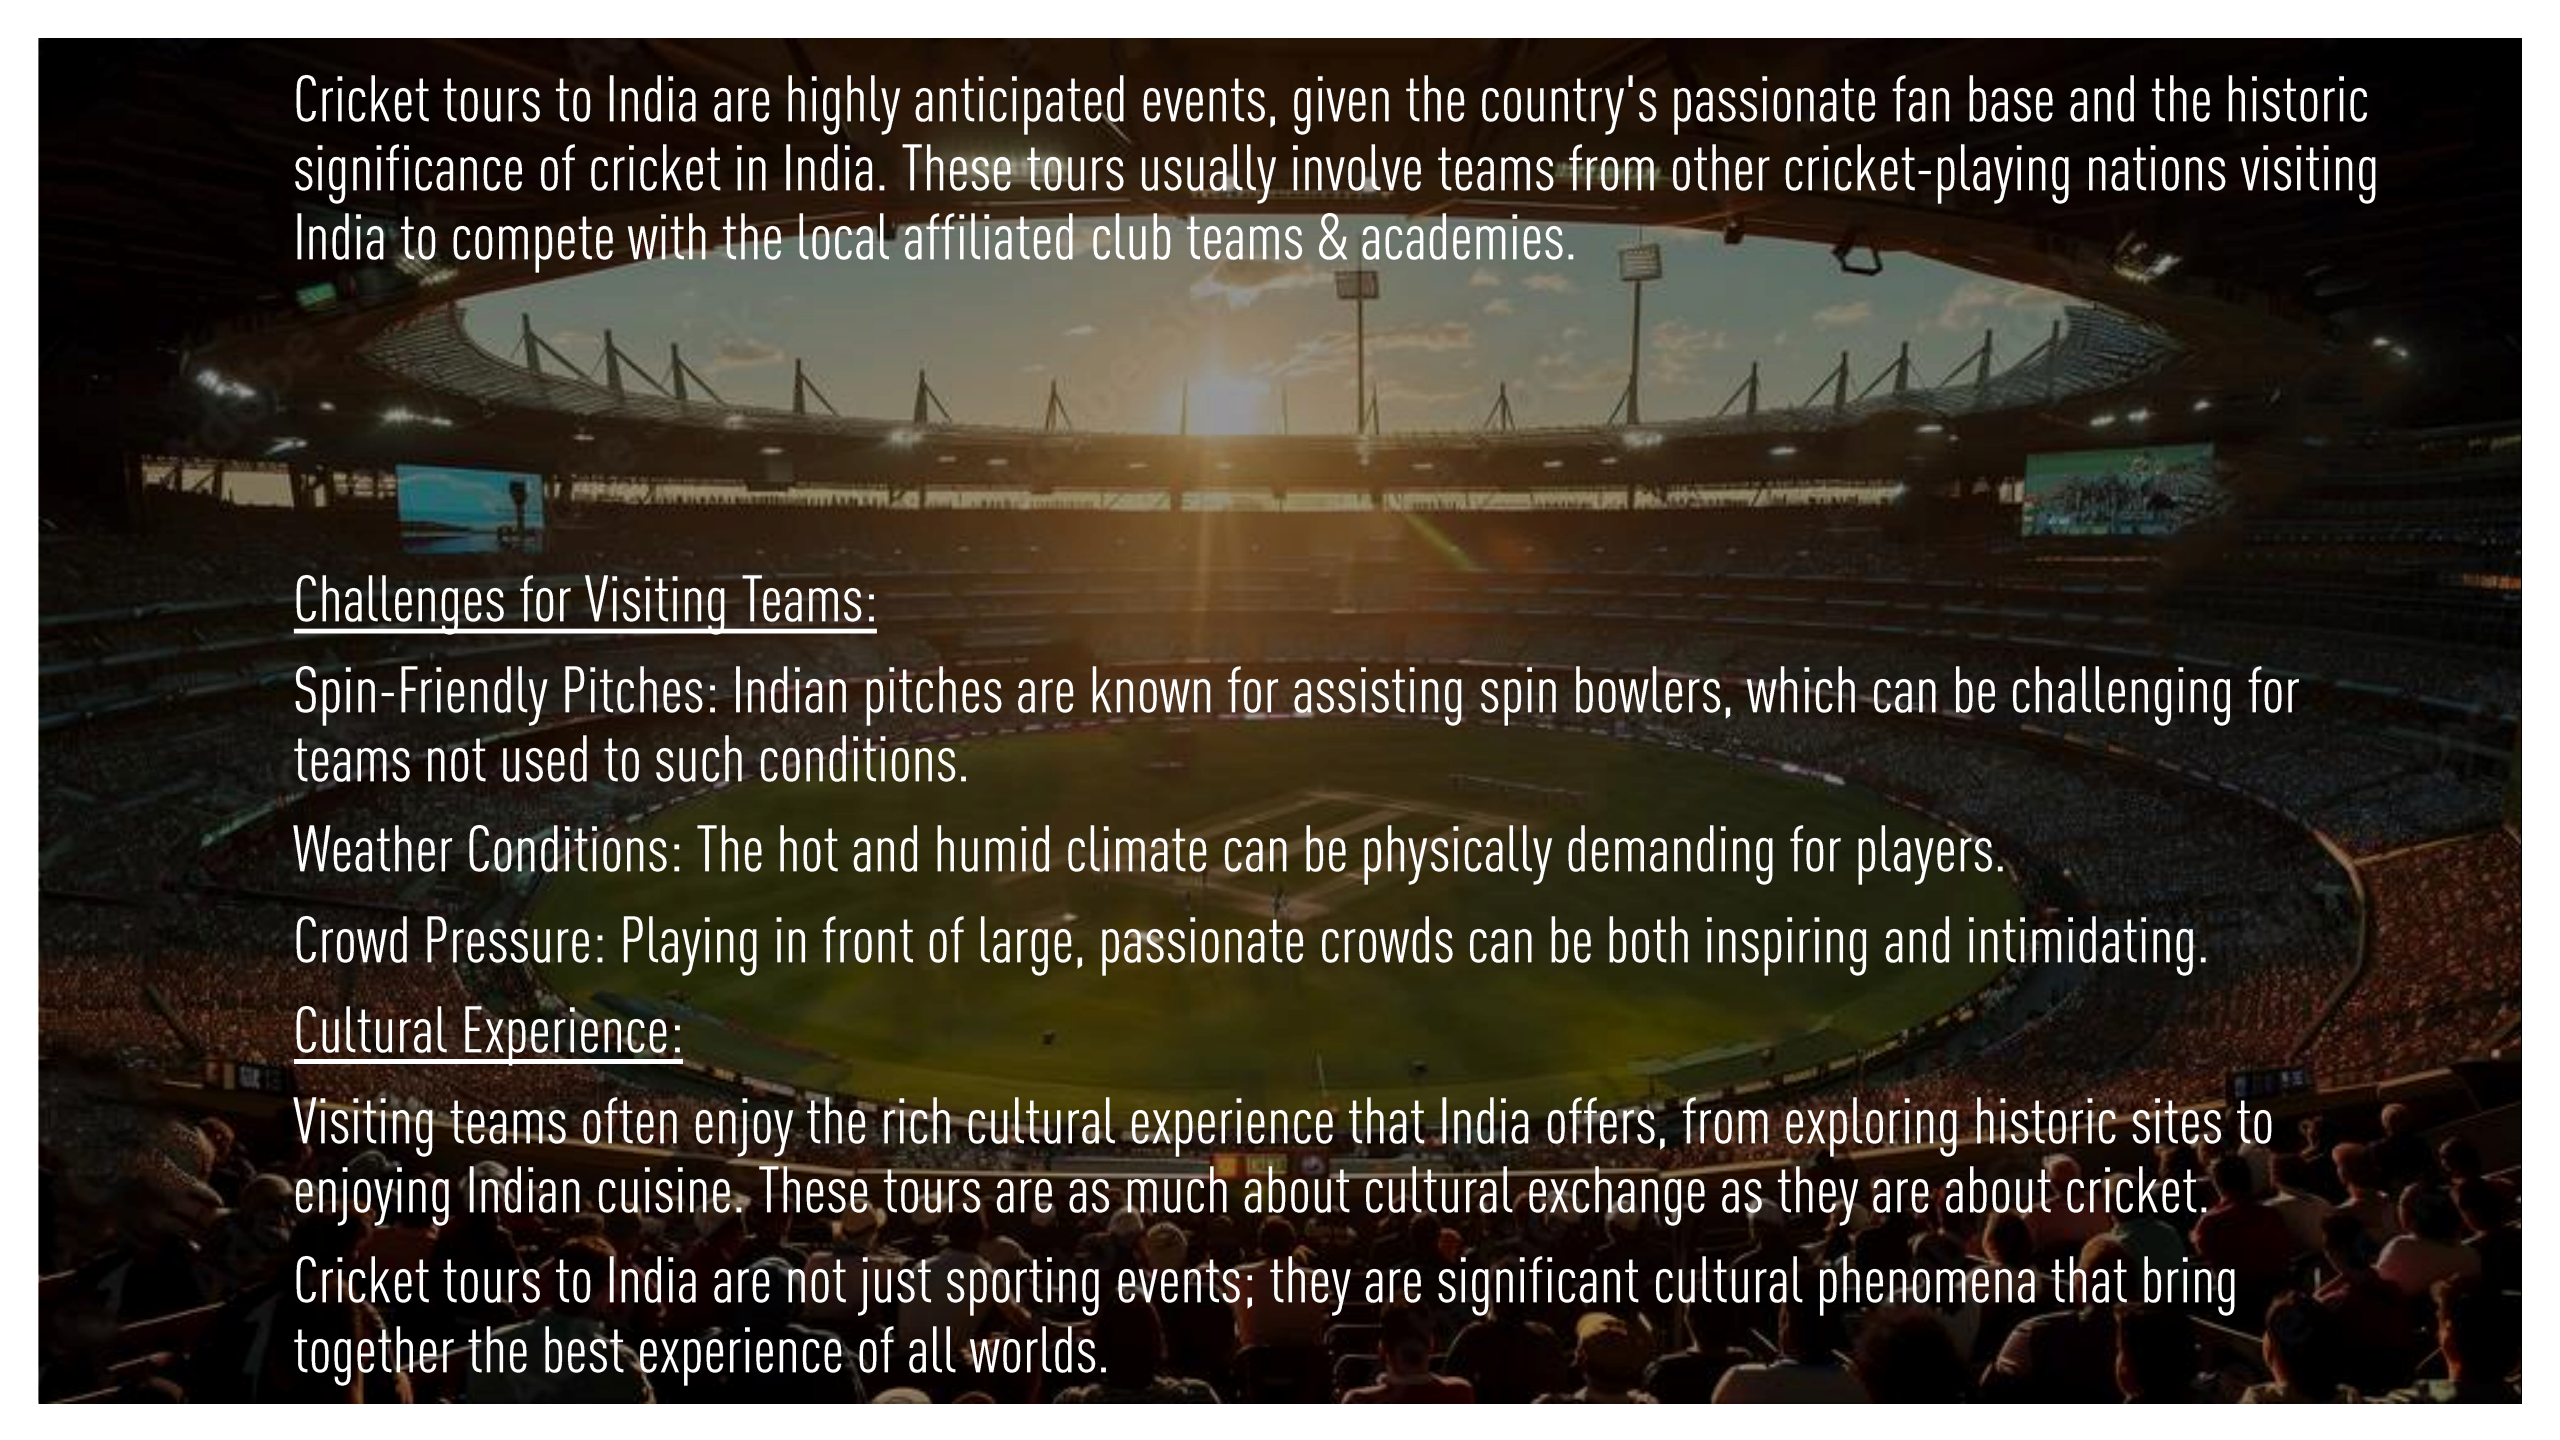

You are one step closer to experiencing India in a never before way. In planning your journey, this guide will provide everything you need to know about India and our services.

India is a land of traditions and symphony of cultures.

“A land of remarkable diversity – from ancient traditions and artistic heritage to magnificent landscapes and culinary creations – India will ignite your curiosity, shake your senses and warm your soul.”

Cricket tours to India are highly anticipated events, given the country's passionate fan base and the historic significance of cricket in India. These tours usually involve teams from other cricket-playing nations visiting India to compete with the local affiliated club teams & academies.

Challenges for Visiting Teams:

Spin-Friendly Pitches: Indian pitches are known for assisting spin bowlers, which can be challenging for teams not used to such conditions.

Weather Conditions: The hot and humid climate can be physically demanding for players.

Crowd Pressure: Playing in front of large, passionate crowds can be both inspiring and intimidating.

Cultural Experience:

Visiting teams often enjoy the rich cultural experience that India offers, from exploring historic sites to enjoying Indian cuisine. These tours are as much about cultural exchange as they are about cricket.

Cricket tours to India are not just sporting events; they are significant cultural phenomena that bring together the best experience of all worlds.

HIGHLIGHTS:

New Delhi

Chaotic and colorful, New Delhi is full-on sensory overload. The Old Delhi neighborhood is a tangle where people, cows, and rickshaws all share the road. In trendy Haus Khas Village, medieval sites sit next to boutiques, bars, and cool cafes. The capital city and its surrounds have an incredible history, as you can tell from the sheer number of UNESCO World Heritage Sites: the early 13th-century Qutub Minar, a sandstone minaret, the 17th-century Red Fort of the Mughal emperors, and Humayun's Tomb, which inspired the Taj Mahal.

Delhi is also the home for iconic IPL team – Delhi Capitals and their home ground, Arun Jaitley stadium. Delhi has a rich cricket heritage with many iconic players hailing from this city including the champion, Virat Kohli & Virender Sehwag.

JAIPUR

If you take one look at the glorious stucco buildings that line Jaipur's wide streets, you'll understand why this is nicknamed "The Pink City."

The story goes that in 1876, the Prince of Wales visited India on a tour. Since the colour pink was symbolic of hospitality, Maharaja Ram Singh of Jaipur painted the entire city pink. The pink that colours the city makes for a marvellous spectacle to behold. Jaipur rises up majestically against the backdrop of the forts Nahargarh, Jaigarh and Garh Ganesh Temple.

Jaipur holds the distinction of being the first planned city of India. Renowned globally for its coloured gems, the capital city of Rajasthan combines the allure of its ancient history with all the advantages of a metropolis.

Jaipur is also the fort for 1st ever IPL champions, Rajasthan Royals and have a rich heritage of producing International cricketers for India.

RISHIKESH

Set against the backdrop of the Himalayas and with the pristine Ganga flowing through it, the ancient town of Rishikesh is one of the major tourist and pilgrimage hubs in northern India. Rishikesh is commonly referred to as the 'yoga capital of the world' and rightly so.

Rishikesh is also known for its connection with The Beatles. In February 1968, members of the legendary English rock band visited Maharishi Mahesh Yogi's ashram (now popularly known as the Beatles Ashram) to learn transcendental meditation.

The new age adventure town of India, Rishikesh also boasts of high adrenaline adventure activities such as River rafting, bungee jumping, swings & ziplines.

Modern Indian batting sensation Rishabh Pant hails from the state of Uttarakhand and started his early playing cricket from here.

Indian Premier League (IPL)

Experience the craziness and madness of cricket in India by watching live one of the Indian Premier League matches.

Delhi is a cricketing mecca with its Arun Jaitley stadium being the home ground for the Delhi Capitals. The stadium has a capacity of around 35,000 spectators.

Jaipur holds the fort for Rajasthan Royals with its iconic Sawai Man Singh stadium which is the home turf for Rajasthan Royals.

Spruce up Your Rishikesh Trip with Ganga River Rafting

Ganga rafting in Rishikesh has gained steady popularity in the last few years with adventure enthusiasts from India and abroad flocking to the town for a taste of what it has to offer. River rafting in Rishikesh offers breath-taking views of the surrounding Himalayan range. Uttarakhand is home to some of the best-known peaks of the range including several sacred sites like the Yamunotri and Gangotri glaciers.

River rafting in Rishikesh is a great way of sprucing up your trip by adding those essential elements of surprise and excitement to it. Riding the currents of a temperamental river on an inflatable raft and bouncing over rapids is an experience like no other and is guaranteed to make your trip a truly memorable one.
